FILIBUSTER IS ON IN SENATE

LA FOLLETTE UNDERTAKES TO DEFEAT CURRENCY BILL

20 ROLL CALLS DEMANDED

THREATENS TO KEEP BODY IN SESSION THREE WEEKS.

SLENDER SUPPORT IN SIGHT

Wisconsin Senator Carries on Fight Practically Alone Stone and Gore Assist Slightly in Calling Attention to Absence of a Quorum

WASHINGTON, May 29.—It has been a long time since the Senate has been tied up by a filibuster with such slender support as was in evidence today when Senator La Follette undertook to defeat the conference report on the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill by talking it to death. The report was brought up shortly after 1 o'clock and Mr. La Follette took the floor. He insisted that a quorum should be maintained at all times, and up to 6 o'clock he had demanded 20 roll calls.

The House was able to obtain more or less relaxation and at the same time keep the supporters of the bills in their seats. The heat was excessive and many were very restless under these restraints. It soon became evident that the Republicans would have difficulty in maintaining the presence of a majority and it was just as apparent that the proceedings would be suspended whenever the necessary 47 senators were not present.

Complains of Recent Illness.

Mr. La Follette complained to his recent illness, and during much of the day leaned strongly upon the arm of his chair, half sitting as he talked. He engaged Mr. Aldrich in a colloquy concerning the provisions of the currency bill and later, declaring that the chairman of the finance committee had not been "frank" in his replies, he was called to order and only after a vote of the Senate had restored him to his right on the floor did he continue his remarks. All senators except Mr. Foraker voted to permit him to continue.

Shortly before 6 o'clock, Mr. La Follette inquired whether a proposition would be agreed to strike out railroad bonds and stocks from the [illegible] securities contemplated in the co[illegible]nce agreement, but Mr. Aldrich [illegible] declined the offer, saying the ado[illegible] of the report was the only question [illegible]fore the Senate and adding that so fa[illegible] as he was concerned, he had neither power nor disposition to make the concession suggested. Mr. Aldrich declared that the report would remain before the Senate until March 14, 1909, if necessary.

Will Continue Opposition.

The Wisconsin senator, with usual firmness, replied that he would continue his opposition since that was the only course presented to him. The twenty-first call to ascertain whether there was a quorum present was made by Mr Gore, at 6:45 p. m. He consulted with Mr. Stone just previous to raising the point of no quorum, which suggested that these senators were actually in sympathy with the Wisconsin senator. Messrs. Stone and Gore left the chamber during the roll call and did not respond to their names.

Mr. La Follette threatened during the day to keep the Senate in session three weeks, but the supporters will get in order to continue his tactics at the end of his physical endurance is yet to be seen.

It is understood that Senator Stone, who is opposed to the bill, will give active support to the filibuster and Senator Gore manifested some sympathy at times today by noting the absence of a quorum. As a body, however, the Democrats are positively opposed to obstruction to the Republicans.

On the 23d roll call at 7:15 p. m., upon motion of Mr. Stone, the absence of a quorum was discovered, and the sergeant-at-arms was directed to bring in absentees. After several minutes, the requisite number of senators answered, but the order to the sergeant-at-arms was allowed to stand. Mr. LaFollette was recognized to resume his speech. He said:

"I have been informed that there is to be a rule sprung on me here that a senator cannot speak more than twice on a subject in a legislative day. I would like to know whether, if I should yield the floor, I could get it again."

Several senators concurred in the statement that Mr. La Follette probably had placed the right construction on the rules, and it was evident that if he gave up the floor he would have a hard time securing it again.

La Follette Reads Fiction.

Mr. La Follette read at great length from a work of fiction on the subject of physical valuation of railway securities. He declared he would be able to make himself heard, "not only tonight, but tomorrow as well."

The chamber was crowded as the evening session was on. The galleries with the exception of the sections reserved for the senators' families and for the diplomatic corps, also were crowded.

At 8:20 o'clock Senator Stone of Missouri called for a quorum, and left the Capitol for his hotel soon after making his point, saying it was necessary to secure some sleep before beginning his promised speech.

At 9:20 o'clock Senator Gore called [illegible]

CORNER IN CORN MEANS MILLIONS

"PATTEN CROWD" WINS OUT IN LONG FIGHT.

MARKET IS HIGHLY IRREGULAR

EXCITEMENT RUNS HIGH IN ALL CHICAGO PITS.

DEAL BEGAN LAST OCTOBER

Immense Quantities of Grain Have Been Delivered to Patten, but He Has Paid for It and Apparently Stood Ready to Take More. Held on to Last.

CHICAGO, May 29.—The "corner" in May corn, which has been run by James A. Patten of this city and his associates came to an end today and the "Patten crowd" is generally credited with having made about $2,000,000 on the deal, although it is admitted that all estimates are largely guess work. Mr. Patten personally declared today that he did not know how much had been made.

The market today was highly irregular and nervous in wheat, corn and oats. May wheat ranged between $1.06 and $1.11, and closed at $1.10½. Corn sold anywhere between 77½ cents and 82⅝ cents, and closed at 80 to 89½ cents. Oats ranged between 51½ and 56⅝ cents, and closed at 52¾ cents.

Excitement Runs High.

Excitement ran high today in all of the grain pits when the weakness was greatest. Values changed with such bewildering rapidity that the traders were puzzled. Shorts were anxious to cover, and brokers for the bull leaders had at times plenty of grain to sell. It is claimed that the shorts have delivered to Mr. Patten and his friends not far from 5,000,000 bushels of corn, and close to 8,800,000 bushels of oats.

The "corner" has been largely in May corn, and Patten's holdings of this option were accumulated between 55 and 60 cents. Subsequent buying necessary to support the market at critical periods raised the average purchase price about 5 cents a bushel.

Deal Began Last Fall.

The deal began early in October, 1907. In that month May corn sold up to 65⅛ cents. The financial troubles, which came about that time, tumbled the price to 53⅛ cents. After the financial flurry had abated, the price of May corn advanced slowly. During February it sold up to 62½ cents and March at 68⅛ cents. Since then it has continued to climb and shorts have scoured the country for corn to deliver on their May contracts. Immense quantities of the grain have been delivered to Patten, but he has paid for it all and apparently stood ready at all times to take more.

Early in May the shorts commenced desperate efforts to fill the Chicago elevators with corn, and many of the western railroads issued "rush" orders to apply on all corn shipments. Despite this, however, the "Patten crowd" were not compelled to let go, nor was their hold in the market weakened to any apparent extent.

TAFT VISITS NORWICH, CONN.

Is Guest of Board of Trade Talks on Panama

NORWICH, Conn., May 29.—Secretary William H. Taft was the guest this evening of the Norwich board of trade and addressed a large audience of people from the stage of the Broadway theater. Mr. Taft was met at New London by a committee of the board and escorted to this city, being enthusiastically received at both points. Upon arrival in this city, the guest with Congressmen Lilley and Higgins, was taken to the Wauregan, where an informal reception was held.

Tonight, the Broadway theater was gaily decorated. On the balcony a huge "welcome" shone forth in electric lights. At the rear of the stage was a tablet of incandescent lights forming the words "Our guest, William H. Taft."

As the secretary entered, the orchestra struck up and the audience arose to their feet. Secretary Taft's address was on "Panama," and the address was made up of observations of the secretary on his recent visit to the canal zone.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING SAFE

Texan in the Toils at Cripple Creek. Of Good Family.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 29.—Jack Parker, who is said to come of a good family of Houston, Tex., was today arrested by Sheriff Von Phul, on complaint of W. O. Burnside, a local merchant, who charges Parker with having robbed his safe of $938, on Saturday night, April 9. Parker is now incarcerated in the county jail.

It is said that several years ago, in an altercation with a deputy sheriff at his home in Houston, Parker shot and killed the officer, but was acquitted when the case came to trial.

CEDRINO MEETS DEATH

FAMOUS ITALIAN AUTOMOBILE DRIVER KILLED.

Thrown Against Fence and Neck Broken at Pimlico Track, Baltimore—Machine Breaks.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 29.—Emmanuel Cedrino, the noted Italian automobile driver, was instantly killed on Pimlico race track this afternoon. Spectators saw his car skid and turn over, three of its wheels being smashed. Cedrino and his brother, who is his mechanic, and was with him in the car, were thrown violently against a fence. The brother was little hurt, but Cedrino died instantly of a broken neck.

E. L. Cedrino was an Italian, and several years before his debut into the United States as an expert driver in automobile races, was chauffeur to Queen Helena of Italy. His first entry in this country in a competitive event was in the Eagle Rock hill climb in 1904. On August 22, 1905, he made a new world's record of 53 minutes 14 2-5 seconds for 50 miles at Long Branch. He drove a car in the Vanderbilt cup race in October of the same year, but was forced to drop out after the second lap, when his machine broke down. He finished second in the Briar Cliff trophy race last month.

Cedrino was a fearless and skillful driver. Several times he had met with accidents, the most notable of which, before that of today, was in the big four-cornered road race in Cuba in 1906. Cedrino, who was driving a 100-horsepower car, ran into a tree on the first lap of the double-eight track at Artemisa. The car turned turtle and Cedrino and his mechanic were thrown out. The calf of Cedrino's left leg was badly torn and he was cut about the face and received numerous contusions.

FRISCO PAPER IS THREATENED

Must Withdraw $1,000 Offer for Information Relative to Gallagher House Dynamiters.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—The Evening Bulletin, which has been active in support of the prosecution of the graft cases, today published a facsimile of a letter received by Fremont Older, editor of the Bulletin, threatening the newspaper and its editor with destruction by dynamite unless the offer of $1,000 for information regarding the dynamiters of the house of J. T. Gallagher in Oakland is not immediately withdrawn.

DESTROYER PERRY LOCATED

Torpedo Boat Delayed by Accident to Condensers.

EUREKA, Cal., May 29.—Officers of the Pacific torpedo fleet now in this harbor have received information that the torpedo destroyer Perry is at Empire City, Coos Bay, Ore. On Wednesday morning, while the torpedo fleet was proceeding from San Francisco to this city, the condensers on the Perry broke down and the vessel turned back and put into Bodega point to make repairs. It was presumed that the Perry would join the fleet here and some anxiety was felt regarding her until the information of her safety came late today. The fleet [illegible]

BRYAN IN HOME STATE

NORFOLK, Neb., May 29.—William J. Bryan began his Nebraska and South Dakota tour today with two speeches at Norfolk, one on the "Benefits of the Y. M. C. A." toward which Norfolk is striving and one on "Politics." In his political address, Mr. Bryan took up the subject of government and treated it as a great corporation, whose stockholders are about to elect directors. He showed the difference between the parties on leading questions from his view point, following in the discussion of these questions the lines that he has followed elsewhere except in the use of local illustrations. Former United States Senator W. V. Allen introduced the speaker.

Mr. Bryan left on a special train at 3 o'clock for Bonesteel, S. D., where he spoke late tonight. En route, he spoke briefly from the train platform. About 1,000 people heard Mr. Bryan in the auditorium here, many prominent Democrats gathering from this territory.

A message to Mr. Bryan regarding the statement given out at Tammany Hall today, to the effect that he had given his consent that Judge Parker shall be chairman of the committee on resolutions at the Denver convention, brought the following reply:

VERDEL, Neb., May 29.—Have not discussed chairmanship of resolutions committee. (Signed) W. J. BRYAN."

PRESENT AT KILLING

YOUNG JACOBSON TELLS CONFLICTING STORIES.

Implicates Others in Murder of Robert C. P. Holmes, of Edison Commonwealth Company.

CHICAGO, May 29.—David Jacobson, 19 years of age, who was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having knowledge of the murder of Robert C. P. Holmes, purchasing agent of the Edison Commonwealth company, who was found dead in an alley on the morning of May 21, today confessed to the police that he was present at the killing of Holmes, although he denies having taken part in the actual murder.

Jacobson in his confession implicates three other men who are also in custody. These are Samuel McEwen, colored, Charles Lewis and George Miller. Their ages range from 19 to 24. Jacobson told the police that McEwen attacked Holmes and knocked him down and that Lewis struck Holmes on the head with a hammer.

Jacobson said that he, McEwen, Lewis and Miller had been employed at the Randolph street station of the Illinois Central until midnight. They came up the street together and near Adams street saw a large man whom they determined to rob. McEwen, Jacobson declared, struck Holmes, knocking him down, and Lewis beat him on the head with a hammer which he drew from his pocket. They then dragged Holmes into the alley where his body was afterward found, and robbed him.

The arrests of the other three men were promptly made, and all of them deny having been connected with the murder in any way. They admit having been with Jacobson on the night of May 21, but all told a good story of their whereabouts, and their statements are now being investigated.

Jacobson was taken to the scene of the murder, after which he changed his story in some [illegible]

SAILOR HAS SMALLPOX

CASE DISCOVERED ABOARD BATTLESHIP KENTUCKY.

Should the Disease Become Epidemic, May Delay World Cruise Parade at Tacoma Today.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 29.—At Bremerton Navy yard the yellow flag floats from the mast of the battleship Kentucky, one of the Atlantic fleet, as a result of smallpox having developed aboard. One sailor is confined with the disease and several others, it is said, show signs of it. The Kentucky will be fumigated thoroughly. Should the disease become epidemic among the crew it may delay the battleship's return to San Francisco to join the Atlantic fleet next month to complete the cruise around the world.

TACOMA, Wash., May 29.—Acting Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, commanding the second division of the Atlantic battleship fleet, raised his blue pennant with its two white stars over his flagship, the Georgia, today, and was saluted with 13 guns. He will be fully invested with the honor and dignity of a rear admiral in the course of a few weeks.

Frequent showers today somewhat marred the pleasure of officers and men ashore, but the scheduled entertainments were successfully carried out. The memorial celebration tomorrow will be the feature of the visit of the warships at this port. A greater crowd is expected to see the parade than was here last Wednesday when the fleet arrived.

Rear Admiral Wainwright will land 1,200 sailors and marines for the parade which will consist of four divisions composed, in addition to the naval force, of veterans of the grand army, militia and fraternal organizations.

The visiting naval officers were guests of honor at a reception given tonight by the Commercial club of Tacoma.

GUNNESS PROPERTY IS SOLD

Auction Is Attended by Thousands. Articles Bring Many Times Their Worth.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 29.—The auction sale of the personal property left by Belle Gunness today was attended by between 4,000 and 5,000 persons. Many of the articles brought five and 10 times their cost price. It is estimated that the total receipts were more than three times larger than they would have been in an ordinary sale. Postal card vendors and refreshment and lunch stand owners did a thriving business. At one time during the day, more than 500 rigs were tied about the farm. The greatest interest centered in the sale of the horse, driven by Mrs. Gunness before the fire, the pony and cart driven by the Gunness children, and a shepherd watch dog. All of these were secured by local people and all brought fancy prices, the dog alone selling for $107.

PRICE, "COTTON KING," INDICTED

STARTLING LEAK IN COTTON CROP STATISTICS.

GRAND JURY TENDERS REPORT

THREE OTHER PERSONS INDICTED WITH PRICE.

HIS BAIL IS FIXED AT $5,000

Accused Man, Evidently Anticipating Action Against Him, Appeared at Federal Building, New York, and Surrendered Himself.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Theodore H. Price, at one time known as the "cotton king" because of his tremendous trades in the staple and more recently president of the Eagle Fire Insurance company, was indicted today by the federal grand jury after a long investigation of a startling leak of cotton crop statistics, contained in a government report which had not been made public. The grand jury found two indictments against Price, one charging conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States and the other bribery of a government official. Three other persons are indicted with Price and warrants have been issued for their arrest, as they are out of the jurisdiction of the federal court of this district.

Gives $5,000 Bail.

With the handing down of the indictments, Mr. Price, who had apparently anticipated the action taken against him, appeared at the federal building and surrendered himself. He was arraigned before Judge Hough and pleaded not guilty. Bail was fixed at $5,000 which was furnished, and Mr. Price was released after the court had set June 19 as the date for the preliminary hearing.

Mr. Price in a statement made public after his arraignment said he was entirely innocent of the charges.

He said that while an indictment was of course an exceedingly disagreeable experience to undergo, it was an accusation and not a proof, and he is aware that the government has considered it necessary to take this action before the matter became outlawed on June 3, or thereabouts. He feels no doubt whatever of the issue.

The original "cotton leak" charges made some three years ago were based on the statement of VanRyper, the bucketshop operator, and a self-confessed participant and beneficiary with others of the alleged "cotton leak" and who conducted his account with Messrs. Hubbard Bros. and company and not with Mr. Price.

Mr. Price says that when the "cotton leak" case first became public, he emphatically asserted his innocence of the charges made in the indictment or of kindred offenses and he now repeats his statement which he trusts his friends will accept, pending a decision of the issue."

Conspiracy Charge.

The indictment charges Price with conspiring with the other three men to furnish advance information concerning cotton reports. The three New York men also charged with conspiracy to bribe Holmes to shape the reports to suit their own interests. Price, according to the indictments, made $750,000 out of the advance information on the report for December, 1904, paying out of this $125,000 to Haas. The indictments do not say how much Holmes received as his share of the profits, but according to information in the June report of 1905 he was paid $1,000 by Haas.

Price figured prominently in the testimony in the cotton conspiracy case in the criminal court here last June. Edwin S. Holmes, Jr., former assistant statistician of the department of agriculture, and Frederick A. Peckham and Moses Haas, the two last named being from New York, were indicted and tried on the charge of conspiracy to defraud and in connection with the alleged misconduct in the office of Holmes. The jury disagreed after a protracted trial.

Extensive Operator.

While Mr. Price's career has lacked the sensational features which marked Mr. Sully's brief tenure of the "cotton throne," he has been generally considered the most prominent operator in the New York cotton market since the days of John Inman. He first attracted international attention as a member of the firm of Price, McCormick & Co., which failed in December, 1900. The firm failed for about $12,000,000, but Mr. Price at once set about rehabilitating his finances and succeeded so well that during the past three or four years he has paid off his individual portion of the firm's remaining indebtedness, amounting to over $1,000,000, notwithstanding the fact that the claims had been through bankruptcy and, moreover, had been outlawed. It is said no one in the cotton business has ever spent so much time and money in securing information from the south concerning the progress of the crops during the growing season and the attitude of interior holders. WON'T ACCEPT SECOND PLACE

FAIRBANKS IS NOT CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION.

FIRST PLACE OR NONE AT ALL

DOLLIVER MAY BE TAFT'S RUNNING MATE.

KNOX SUPPORTERS ARE BUSY

Reach Chicago With Noisy and Aggressive Bodyguard—Idea of His Leaving Race Is Scouted by His Friends Clubs Being Organized.

CHICAGO, May 29.—It is now conceded that Vice President Fairbanks will not accept a renomination for the second place on the ticket.

Senator Hemenway and other personal supporters of the vice president, realizing that his candidacy was a hopeless one, urged him to settle the vice presidential squabble by allowing the use of his name for the position, but to all such appeals he turned a deaf ear and answered them with an emphatic "No."

Ordinarily the vice president is regarded as a coy politician. His "nay" does not usually mean "no" when there is a great personal or political advantage to himself involved, but the Fairbanks boomers declare that he is sincere this time, and that no inducement will be sufficiently weighty to cause him to change his attitude.

Naturally Fairbanks' campaign managers have been stoutly denying that he could, would or should accept a second place, but that was a bluff of men who yet held a hope that the presidential lightning might strike their choice, but with the hope of the nomination gone, the emphatic statement of Fairbanks to all of his personal friends that he "won't" is regarded as a serious matter.

A Substitute for Fairbanks.

The Republican managers, in view of Fairbanks' attitude, are looking around for a substitute. Ex-Governor Franklin Murphy of New Jersey is strongly urged. Senator Dolliver of Iowa has been named by men from a number of the states as the one whom the Taft forces would like to see on the ticket with the secretary of war.

It is expected that Senator Dolliver will place Mr. Taft's name in nomination when that phase of the convention work is reached, and that fact has caused his name to be lisped by many a tongue.

Ex-Governor Murphy has his state delegation with him for the second place, and arrangements are being made for a banquet in Chicago just preceding the convention to start a lifesized movement for him among the delegates.

Senator Knox's Boom on Hand.

Senator Knox's boom for the presidency is being brought here with a noisy and aggressive bodyguard. The idea of his leaving the race is scouted by his friends, and these same friends declare that much of the Taft strength is wind that will blow itself to pieces when the real work commences.

Knox's friends claim he will go into the convention with a solid Pennsylvania delegation of 68 votes back of him. In this they are mistaken, for at least one of the delegates, Lewis Emery, Jr., of the Twenty-first Pennsylvania district, has boldly announced himself for Taft. This defection, however, the Knox men say, has no significance, and is contrary to the expressed sentiment of the Republicans of that district.

Speaking of the claims of the Taft managers, one of the friends of Senator Knox, who is on the ground, maintains that the secretary of war will fall far short of a majority on the first ballot, and in the alignment that will follow Knox will be considered the most available under all the circumstances, and will be nominated.

Knox Uniformed Clubs Slated.

Knox headquarters have been engaged at the Auditorium Annex, and will be opened early in June. Congressman James F. Burke will have charge of his fortunes. Uniformed Knox clubs are being organized in Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other Pennsylvania cities to march on to Chicago, and they will come here with plenty of fire and noise.

The Knox managers insist that he will go into the convention with from 150 to 200 delegates on the first ballot. Much depends, however, upon the contests from the southern states, where Knox has many friends.

If the national committee seats the Taft delegates, regardless of the merits of the contest, the strength of Senator Knox will be taken from considerably, but his friends insist that however the contests are decided, Pennsylvania's candidate will have a goodly showing from the south.

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE

SELEEITES INVADE CAMP OF ZEBS MAY REGRET IT.

Scouts Reinforced by Arrival of Bernard—Giants Have Several New Recruits.

The Zebs will have plenty of scouting to do today. The Giants will be in the Pikes Peak region and rumor has it that they intend making two attacks upon the camp of General Zeb and his ball tossers. The latter are confident that they can repulse the fiercest onslaughts of the Selee tribe, especially since the arrival of reinforcements in one J. Silvey Bernard, who is well acquainted with this neck of the woods, and who is said to know a few tricks that will put the Selee bunch all to the bad.

Bernard arrived last night from the University of Colorado, having been detailed by Managerial General Dickerson. He reported to J. Good last night and is likely to be seen on the firing line during one of the engagements today. He says his spitball is doing everything that he wants it to do.

Not Afraid of Giants.

The chief scout in today's skirmishes will be Richard Ackley, who has not lost a battle this season and who is not at all scared of the outfit that has just returned from a plundering trip on the western slope. Nick Welgardt, who helps Mr. Ackley, is of the same opinion, and there are about seven or eight more individuals who wear a "C. S." monogram who are likewise of the same view.

The battleground will be Roswell park, and if nothing happens to delay the arrangements, such as the arrival of J. Pluvius, who has not received a season complimentary, the engagements will begin at 10:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m. Jack Diamond will umpire.

To Use New Battle Array.

The Selee lineup has been changed considerably, Jones having been brought in from the outfield to take Ortner's place at first. Crosby is playing on third, and Shaw will appear in right field for the first game. McDonough has been released and Seltzer will do things behind the bat. Pierce, the star pitcher of the bunch, has joined the Lincoln Western league team. Padfield, a southpaw, will probably pitch the morning game, and Bailey, the Denver university man, the afternoon contest. While Ackley may be used in both games for the Zebs, it is likely that Bernard will be sent in for the afternoon fray. Wasson will arrive today, but is not likely to appear until tomorrow.

Who Is Here.

Frank Selee, boss of the Seleeites, is in town, and Sam Kenworthy, assistant boss, will bring the players here this morning over the Denver & Rio Grande. President Dickerson will not see the Zebs today, but will be here to run things tomorrow.

Rain checks from last Sunday will be good at either of today's games. The fighting order:

TIGERS PLAY AGGIES TODAY

Closing Intercollegiate Baseball Game on Washburn Field This Afternoon.

In the closing intercollegiate baseball game of the season, Colorado College will meet Colorado Agricultural college on Washburn field at 3 o'clock this afternoon. That this will be one of the hottest games of the year is the prediction of all college fans. The Aggies are anxious to win, as it is only by a victory that they can keep [illegible] with the Miners for honors. The Tigers are also out after honors, as they can win third place in the standings over Boulder by a victory today.

The Aggies won the first game by a onesided score, but the Tigers were not playing their best ball that day, and believe that they can turn the tables this afternoon. Last night's practice was fast and good, and Coach Falk will send his men into the game in good shape for a lively game of ball.

MRS. JOY AND DR. GILLETT WIN

Defeat Miss Gauss and Mr. Gauss in Tennis Finals at Country Club.

Mrs. Joy and Dr. Gillett yesterday won the final round in the mixed doubles tennis tournament which has been in progress during the week at the Cheyenne Mountain Country club. They won the victory in an exciting and well-played match with Miss Gauss and Mr. Gauss, which required three hard sets and was undecided until the last minute of play. The scores were 7-5, 3-6 and 9-7. At one time Miss Gauss and Mr. Gauss were within two strikes of victory, but excellent play by Mrs. Joy turned the tide. The losers secure the runners-up cups.

Mrs. Joy and Dr. Gillett were also victors in the Town and Gown tournament a week ago.

Pikes Peak and Yeomen Teams Meet on Washburn Field This Morning.

Considerable interest is attached to the morning double-header which opens the day's heavy program of baseball. Beginning the first game at 10 o'clock, the Pikes Peak and Yeomen teams in the City Baseball league will line up on Washburn field for what should be two hot contests. SHAW TIES WORLD'S RECORD

Dartmouth Hurdler Covers High Sticks in 0:15 1-5 in Intercollegiate Trials.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—One of the world's records was equaled and two intercollegiate records were broken in the preliminary trials of the annual intercollegiate championships which were held this afternoon on Franklin field. With the pick of the college athletes of the east participating, today's events were of a high order, and tomorrow's finals promise record performances.

The best performance of the day was the equaling of the world's record of 0:15 1-5 in the 120-yard hurdle race by A. B. Shaw of Dartmouth.

Besides Shaw's record a feature of the day was the remarkable work of the pole vaulters. No less than four men, Dray, Nelson and Gilbert, all of Yale, and Cook of Cornell, broke the intercollegiate record of 11 feet 11¼ inches, held by Dray.

Boulder Fails to Attend Conference on Summer Baseball.

Because of the failure of the University of Colorado to attend the intercollegiate conference held at Denver yesterday to discuss the question of summer baseball, the decision of the colleges on this subject will not be announced for several days. Upon Boulder's request, however, the decision is withheld until the University of Colorado has had an opportunity to learn the action taken yesterday. Principal J. W. Park, chairman of the athletic board, and Manager William Lennox, represented Colorado College.

VANDALS DESPOIL CEMETERY

Rob Graves of Flowers and Plant Weeds Instead—Citizens Highly Incensed.

Manitou people are much incensed over recent acts of vandalism that have been committed in Crystal Valley cemetery, just east of town. Many cases have been reported recently of the theft of flowers and plants from the graves, the latest being that reported by a Manitou woman who placed a quantity of geraniums on a grave a few days ago, only to return to find that all, except one or two, had been pulled up and weeds planted in their stead.

A vigilant lookout will be kept at the cemetery for acts of vandalism, and public sentiment has been aroused to such an extent that the guilty person or persons, if apprehended, will receive severe punishment. The police department will take active steps to put a stop to this form of vandalism.

A Square-Deal

Is assured you when you buy one of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and attested under oath as being complete and correct. They are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native, medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. While potent to cure they are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into Dr. Pierce's leading medicines. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength. This agent possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable anti-septic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, "heartburn," foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

For all diseases of the mucous membranes, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific. Catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs is cured by it. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even in the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate [illegible] "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate hang-on, or chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to endeavor to palm off upon you some nostrum of unknown composition in place of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Most dealers recommend Doctor Pierce's medicines because they know what they are made of and that the ingredients employed are among the most valuable that a medicine for like purposes can be made of. The same is true of leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend them, since they know exactly what they contain and that their ingredients are the very best known to medical science for the cure of the several diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

With tricky dealers it is different.

Something else that pays them a little greater profit will be urged upon you as "just as good," or even better. You can hardly afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition and without any particular record of cures in place of Doctor Pierce's medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION and have a record of forty years of cures behind them. You know what you want [illegible]

NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

Charles D. Hopkins filed suit in the district court yesterday to recover $3,900 and interest at 8 per cent per annum on varying parts of that amount from the Beacon Consolidated Mines company. The suit is based on nine promissory notes alleged to have been executed by the defendant company last June in favor of Clyde P. Campbell, who assigned his claim to Hopkins.

Clara Tucker, a 16-year-old girl, was arrested yesterday by Juvenile Officer William Reasoner on a charge of juvenile delinquency.

Justice W. N. Ruby has under advisement the case of Mrs. Emma J. Haas against R. B. Tankersley, to recover the amount of a bill claimed to be due for Mrs. Tankersley's board in Chicago two years ago. A peculiar feature of the suit lies in the fact that Mrs. Tankersley is a sister of the plaintiff and is divorced from the defendant. The divorced wife testified against her husband during the trial of the case yesterday.

W. F. Oldham, accused of stealing a sack of corn, failed to appear for trial in the district court yesterday and a bench warrant, with bond fixed at $1,000, was issued for him.

James E. Kennedy has filed suit in the county court for divorce from Bertha M. Kennedy, alleging cruelty. The couple were married in Norfolk, Va., four years ago.

In the case of Pool vs. Housh, to recover $59, for alleged services rendered, a jury in the county court yesterday returned a verdict for the defendant. The plaintiff excepted and was granted 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

DOUGLASS VISITS RUINS

Favorably Impressed With Popular Manitou Attraction.

That the Cliff Dwellers ruins in Cliff Dwellers canon near Manitou are attracting widespread interest is attested by a visit made yesterday by W. R. Douglass, C. E., United States examiner of surveys of the bureau of ethnology. Mr. Douglass was sent here by the government to make an inspection of the ruins and was very favorably impressed by what he saw. He has requested photographs of the ruins and blue prints of their architecture for filing in the government archives for reference.

Mr. Douglass is touring the west in the interests of the department he represents.

What the Press Agents Say

"THE GREAT DIVIDE."

The pictorial side of "The Great Divide," in which Henry Miller is to appear at the Opera House next Thursday, is said to be strikingly fascinating. The first two scenes are full of the atmosphere and color of the boundless west, pervaded by the spirit of mountains and plains. The first act setting represents a cabin on a cactus ranch in southern Arizona. The second act shows "the roof of the world," a wild, magnificent spot at the top of the Rockies. Here, on the great Continental divide is fought out the conflict between the hero and the heroine—he typifying the unfettered, lawless freedom of the mountain and desert, she reflecting the Puritan ideals of her New England home. The grandeur of the scene gives an almost epic background to this struggle of contrasted national temperaments of east and west. Stephen Ghent's abode in the Cordilleras overlooks a yawning canon and, spread out before it, is an impressive vista of vast distances across the mountain tops.

It was just such a scene as this, viewed in all its gorgeous western coloring from noon to sunset, that inspired the imagination of William Vaughn Moody to write this drama of "The Great Divide," which was instantly hailed upon its presentation in New York city as "The Great American Play" everyone had been praying for. Mr. Moody was a college professor, a teacher of literature in the University of Chicago, and had been writing poetic dramas along classical Greek lines, but the voice of the west spoke to him one summer day on the top of the Continental divide and he brought back its utterance to the east in one of the most notable dramas of the past quarter century.

"MY DIXIE GIRL."

The Kempton Komedy Kompany will open their engagement at the Opera House Monday evening, presenting for their opening play "My Dixie Girl," at popular prices, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents. Ladies will be admitted free when accompanied with one paid ticket. An exchange has the following to say:

"The Kempton Komedy Kompany, which closes its engagement here Saturday evening, has certainly entertained our people in an excellent manner. All the actors are good, and, above all, are gentlemen and ladies, whom it is a pleasure to meet. We cannot go into the details of the plays presented, or the individual merits of the people, but we unhesitatingly recommend them to every town they see fit to bill. They will give any crowd their money's worth of fun, romance and melodrama. We hope the Kemptons will keep Paonia on their list of towns whenever they come this way."

SPECIAL PROGRAM AT THE CRYSTAL

One of the best series of moving pictures ever presented to a Colorado Springs audience is being shown at the Crystal this afternoon and evening.

The wonderful picture of a trip under the sea in a submarine must be seen to be appreciated. To see the boat at the bottom of the sea, the divers going to the rescue, the water, and the fish darting here and there, is truly wonderful and realistic. The visions of loved ones as they appear before the eyes of the dying sailors is very pathetic. Don't fail to see this splendid picture.

There will also be presented "An Occasional Porter," "The Piker's Dream," and "The Errand Boy." These are all comic pictures of great merit and are laugh provoking from start to finish.

Jack Begley, whose singing is one of the principal features of the Crystal, will sing the beautiful song, "Sweetheart Days." Prof. Griffith, the popular pianist, has arranged a splendid musical program. Manager Lent is to be complimented on the high class of pictures he is showing and the splendid music he has secured. An hour of comfort and high-class entertainment is always to be had at the Crystal.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS AT FAIRYLAND THIS AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Manager Braden of Fairyland has scored another hit in the presentation of the very funny picture, "The Thirsty Moving Men," which is the funniest yet. Another is "A Useful Present for a Child." The present is a kit of tools, saw, chisel, hammer, etc. The old folks go out to a tea party and leave the boy at home with the new tools. If you cannot imagine the rest, you must come to Fairyland to see the finish. Still another comic is "The Complicated Duel," which is fought by two men, but a rabbit and a chicken get the worst of it. If you have the blues, here is a program that will cure them. You will have to laugh or shut your eyes. Manger Braden has been trying for some time to secure a good program for this occasion and is to be complimented on his success, for here is certainly a trio of comics hard to beat. "The Great Fire Scene" is the opening picture. This is a most interesting and realistic picture, and is alone worth the price of admission.

Harry B. Frink will sing "Dolly Dear," which is a beautiful song. Mr. Harry Van and Mr. Charles Templeton will play this afternoon and evening. An hour of excellent entertainment is assured all who attend.

Home News

Of Interest to Everyone in Colorado Springs.

In every newspaper in the country you will read statements made by people living in out-of-the-way places, who are supposed to have been cured or derived great benefit from some wonderful remedy or "cure-all." But here in Colorado Springs we only publish statements made by Colorado Springs people—the testimony of your friends, neighbors and fellow-townsmen.

Mrs. John Hill, 1207 Grant avenue, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to be a most excellent remedy. My principal symptom was the disordered condition of the kidney secretions. They were very scanty at times and highly colored. I suffered constantly from pains across the small of my back and kidney regions, and at times my limbs were badly swollen. I had read of Doan's Kidney Pills and heard many recommend them, so decided to try them myself. I procured a box at the D. T. Butcher Drug Co.'s store and felt great relief from the first. I continued taking them until the pains in my back were gone, the difficulty with the kidney secretions corrected and the swelling in my limbs had entirely subsided. I feel that I am only doing my duty in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1908.

MEMORIAL DAY.

HOW much longer Memorial Day will be observed we cannot tell, but it will certainly be as long as any are left who remember the events of the war. So long as a few veterans are left to join in the parade, so long even as some of younger age are left who appreciate what the great struggle meant, so long the custom will be kept up of decorating the graves of the old soldiers, and holding services in memory of the men who preserved the Union.

It is well that there should be such a day; it is well that the youth of the country should be taught what it cost to keep the United States together as a nation. As time goes on, and our perspective grows larger, that war looms up as one of the great events of human history. It was the greatest struggle ever fought between men of the same blood. On its outcome depended the life of the nation. There never was anything else like it in our history, and in all probability never will be.

This will be a general holiday, and much of it will be devoted to sports and recreation; but let us all give a thought at least to the real meaning of the day, and pay an inward if not an outward tribute to those who offered their lives to the perpetuation of the republic.

PUBLICITY, OR DUPLICITY.

IN response to what was supposed to be a popular demand, a bill providing for the publication of campaign contributions was passed by the House of Representatives, and promptly shelved by the Senate. Since then, the Bryan-Taft correspondence on the subject has been made public, and it was thought by some that would be sufficient to make the Senate repent.

The bill could not possibly have gone through in the shape in which it came from the House. The so-called Trumpacker amendment could never pass the Senate. The only way to do would have been to knock that off, and pass the rest of the bill; and then if the House after conference would consent to that, the bill might become a law. But that would take too long, and the members were impatient.

Those who have had some experience in practical politics incline to doubt the efficacy of a campaign publicity bill. We have had one in this state for a number of years. At the end of the campaign the chairman publishes his accounts all right, and we do not know that anybody has ever accused him of perjury; but somehow or other there is a lot of money used which never passes through his hands. It is easy enough to supply the chairman with enough money for the legitimate expenses, and have a disbursing agent with no official position to distribute whatever else is necessary. If money is thought necessary in any campaign, a way will be found of using it and keeping within the letter of the law, whatever the law may be. It is therefore a question, whether the passage of a publicity act would not lead to more duplicity than publicity.

One of the most amusing things about the campaign is the talk of the managers of the George Gray League about the support their candidate would get from Organized Labor. They allege that he is the laborers' favorite—the union laborer, that is, and that the Pennsylvania primaries in the mining districts went solid for him. They say that his findings in the arbitration which the President forced upon the coal companies at the time of the last big strike have endeared him to every miner in the country, and he would get the solid vote of the U. M. W. Now the reason for amusement at this time is not its falsity, for it would not be surprising if Judge Gray, after being nominated, would get a very large labor vote. But the judge is a born aristocrat, a conservative by tradition and training, an upholder of the courts. To have him nominated because he could draw part of the naturally socialist vote to the Democrats would be really ironic.

The last legislature provided for a Civil Service Commission, but did not provide for the payment of its expenses. The secretary is made a statutory officer so he can draw his salary; but no other money [illegible] for the purpose of examination fees. The sponsors of the bill assured that there would be such a rush to take those examinations that a fee of a dollar or two would amply provide all the money the commission could spend; but somehow the rush is already over. Legislatures have a way of creating new departments without making provision for their support. It will be up to the next one to make provision for some that now exist, but only precariously and as it were by sufferance.

A commission of five has just come to this country from Liberia, on a mission of considerable difficulty. A former President of Liberia has said that all it lacks is intelligent men and a chance to market its goods. Now these commissioners propose to induce many intelligent colored men from this country to emigrate; and they hope to [illegible] American capital in the building of railroads and steamship lines. They have embarked on a big undertaking, but they hope to get Mr. Roosevelt thoroughly interested, and if they do that, who knows what may happen?

The Hearst recount is going on in New York. It would take an average gain of less than three ballots per box to unseat McClellan. But he has been seated so long that it seems as if he might as well serve out the term now. Nobody seems to know what Hearst is after in pressing the recount. His organs have not announced his candidacy for anything yet.—But he is going to run a Massachusetts man named Hisgen for President, and preparations are making for the pushing of the Hearst League in every state. By the way, why wouldn't that be a good place for Patterson to go, if he gets thrown out of the Glenwood convention?

Today's Commoner is heralded by the press agent as a scorcher. Mr. Bryan has no "Ananias brigade," but he has what might be called a "bargain brigade." Everybody in the Democratic party who opposes the Will of the People belongs to it, and has been bought up by the Interests. All of which may make Mr. Guffey huffy, but what is Guffey? It is the Toiling Masses who cast the votes of Pennsylvania. (N. B. The Republican majority in that state in 1900 was—well, we have forgotten whether it was much over a quarter-million or not.)

North Carolina has followed the lead of several of her southern sister states, and joined the cold water brigade. The sale of liquor is now absolutely prohibited within her borders. Much of the state has been dry for a long time, and we do not suppose the new law will make much difference to the "moonshine" districts. The good effects are expected especially in the eastern part of the state.

Among those who made speeches in opposition to the passage of the currency bill we note the name of Senator Teller. It was about his last appearance for the session, and the role was a familiar one. Nothing suits the Senator in these degenerate days especially nothing that is done or proposed by the Republican party to which the Senator was once supposed to belong.

The Gunness horror is too rare a morsel to be dropped voluntarily by the yellow press. There will doubtless be rumors, with more or less circumstantial evidence, that the murderess is alive, for a long time to come—in fact, whenever the editor will stand for a special story.

The people of this part of the country will not forget that it was Senator Clay of Georgia who objected to the consideration of the bill establishing a Bureau of Mining, and thus defeated it for this session.

Old General Humidity did more to prevent a filibuster in the Senate than any amount of agreements could do.

PLEASURE PARKS.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Intelligent citizens, who adequately appreciate the needs of a great city and who attach a proper value to progress, will note with approval that the survey committee of councils has just taken a preliminary step toward increasing the number of breathing places and recreation parks within the city limits.

OUR SOUTH AMERICAN NEIGHBORS.

From the Washington Herald.

We are coming to a better understanding of those growing nations to the south of us, as they have come to a better understanding of our purpose and our policy. Mr. Roosevelt's prediction that no other portion of the world will see a greater development in wealth, population and all that makes for progress than the region extending from the Rio Grande to Patagonia is not an idle one. It has been hampered in the past by conditions that are fast disappearing—political instability is giving way to strength and permanence in government; great cities are springing up; vast railroad enterprises are linking hitherto inaccessible territories with the outside world and with each other; agriculture, manufactures and all the arts of civilization flourish, and wealth and culture abound. A happy region, unburdened with armies and navies, and endowed by nature with immense resources—may it be worthy of the great future before it!

ADMIRAL EVANS ORDERED TO DUTY.

From the Washington Post.

Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, recently in command of the Atlantic fleet, has been ordered to duty with the general board. The navy department is wise to avail itself of the counsel and advice of this distinguished officer, who has completed his career at sea in command of the most powerful fleet ever assembled under the flag, and who has had more years of service afloat in flag rank than any other rear admiral on the list. His name in connection with the cruise of the battleship fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific has become a household word throughout the country, and will continue to be associated with events, diplomatic and professional, which have marked the establishment of the United States as a great naval power.

The duties of the important board which Admiral Evans joins include advice to the secretary of the navy upon matters affecting the efficiency of the fleet. Ripe in recent experience and vigorous in mind, this veteran officer brings to this council contributions of the greatest practical value.

A DIPLOMAT IN TRAINING.

From the Boston Transcript.

The Pierrepont family has figured prominently in various pages of American history from the middle of the seventeenth century down to late in the nineteenth. The founder of it in this country was Rev. James Pierrepont. He was one of the [illegible] men of Yale. A plan for a college in Connecticut was instrumental in inducing Elihu Yale to give it financial backing and incidentally a name. He was also the father-in-law of Jonathan Edwards. His grandson, Hezekiah B. Pierrepont, was a famous business man of New York, who by marriage with the daughter of William Constable, came into possession of about 500,000 acres of wild land in the northern part of the state. The activity of Edwards Pierrepont in national affairs in the last century is still well and favorably remembered by many. The name has lain somewhat fallow in public life during recent years, but perhaps it is now in a way to come in again. Still Low Pierrepont, the young-est great-grandson of Hezekiah, has developed an ambition for diplomacy, though only just over his majority, and has advanced so far on the road as to be appointed private secretary to Ambassador Griscom at Rome. Perhaps his family connections made it easier for him than for others to obtain this foothold, yet the ambition on the part of a young man of wealth and position is one that deserves encouragement. He is under favorable apprenticeship, and until our system is reformed or changed, this is about the only way in which a practical training in diplomacy can be obtained.

THE WATER SITUATION.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Will you allow a woman to ask enlightenment on a few points of this water question? I was out this morning and saw a watering-cart being filled at one of the hydrants, and afterwards it was seen sprinkling one of the alleys; and that, too, after a good rain yesterday. Then again while out driving I saw a hose that had been used while making cement sidewalks, running freely down one of the ditches. Will you tell me who has the care of this precious water of ours? I don't wish to see a man lose his job, so can't we afford to pay the sprinkling men and lay them off till we are assured of a water supply for the summer? We could walk the outlying gravel sidewalks a little longer if by so doing we could save some of that precious fluid running down the gutters. Are there not men in this town with sand enough to look out for things? If not, give some of the women a chance and there will not be this more than foolish waste, nor will the water be poured out all day long and night, too. We should conserve our water in the spring for I have lived long enough in Colorado to know that we cannot forecast any season.

MRS. A. ATHERTON.

Colorado Springs, May 28.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Now that we have had rain are the sprinkling regulations to be restricted to one hour? If so, would it not be possible to make the Powers That Be understand the advisability of making the one hour after five p. m. all over the city? It is a waste of time and water to try to keep lawn and plants in good condition, watering in the early morning. In a couple of hours the heat of the sun dries all moisture, whereas toward sunset the ground remains damp all night.

Colorado Springs, May 27.

COST OF THE NAVY.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

In the humble opinion of the subscriber I think you hit the keynote and gist of the argument on the navy question in your editorial of today (Thursday) under the above heading. By no means do I agree with Representative Hobson in his extravagant fears of foreign invasion, but I do believe that this great country should have a navy that will continue the respect that we have commanded since George Dewey fired the shot that was heard around the world and we gave to Spain the "greatest submarine fleet on earth," or rather beneath the ocean. Well may you ask the very pertinent questions you did. President Roosevelt was none too extravagant in his request for four battleships, and they should have been ordered by Congress. Another pertinent inquiry you might have made is how much would the Spanish war have cost this nation had we not possessed the effective navy we did at the time the arrogance and egotism of Spain, abetted by those who decried the strength of our navy and the skill of our seamen, induced her to attempt war with us? There is no way of computing the cost, but neither is there any doubt that it would have reached a sufficient sum to have purchased several navies of sufficient size and strength to keep the peace against all comers. There is no greater force for peace than adequate preparation for war. Give us a navy large enough to preserve the peace and peace will reign supreme. A great navy is yet the greatest "Dove of Peace" known.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

By Hubert J. Hapgood

Sometimes it seems that the people who know the most are the ones who receive less salary. It's a case of learn more, earn less. The professions which require from eight to twelve years of higher education offer small pecuniary inducement, and every day we see lawyers, doctors, and more especially teachers, leaving the fields of their chosen endeavor and accepting positions in business.

The conditions surrounding the life of the professional man or woman are usually pleasant enough but in the long run the average compensation is far too small to attract the best class of workers.

The salaries of teachers are often ridiculously low. There is a small town in Pennsylvania where the teacher receives a salary of $400 per year, while in the same town the janitor of the court house is paid $60 per month. The one is intrusted with the educational and moral training of the young, while to the other is assigned the commonplace duty of sweeping out the court room.

Furthermore, it is observed that throughout the country the average age of teachers is becoming lower. Every year younger teachers are employed and the time is past when men and women who, though not too old to learn, yet are experienced in child-nature, and are deeply respected by both parents and teachers, are given responsible school positions. Yet never have the schools of this country had so important a part to play in our civilization as at the present time, and nothing else is so important about the schools as the character and qualification of their teachers.

GUFFEY'S EASY TRIUMPH.

From the Philadelphia Ledger.

The Bryan boomers, who had made such a terrifying noise beforehand, did not prove correspondingly formidable when it came to voting in the state convention. The placid Guffey had everything his own way. The convention was his; the organization, the resolutions, the nominations, the delegates were all as Guffey wished them to be. There was no indorsement of Bryan; there were no instructions to the delegates, who will go to Denver under Guffey's lead, pledged to support whatever candidate may there appear most available.

THE GANO DOWNS

Thousands of men gave their lives, a million and more men gave the best years of their lives, thousands and thousands of men and women sacrificed all they owned that we might enjoy all that America means to us today.

One day in the year we are asked to stop thinking about "the almighty dollar" and think of the noble men who sacrificed so much for this great country—our country.

We gladly forego the little profit on a day's business, to honor the men who gave their all.

Some one has called Memorial Day "The American Sabbath." Our store will not be opened today, Saturday, May 30.

NOT AT I WILL.

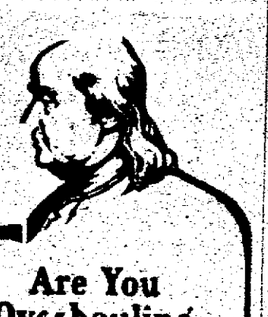

Blindfolded and alone I stand,
With unknown thresholds on each hand.
The darkness deepens as I grope,
Afraid to fear, afraid to hope;
Yet this one thing I learn to know—
Each day more surely as I go,
That doors are opened, ways are made,
Burdens are lifted or are laid
By some great law unseen and still,
Unfathomed purpose to fulfill,
"Not as I will."

Blindfolded and alone I wait;
Loss seems too bitter, gain too late;
Too heavy burdens in the load,
Too rough and wearisome the road;
And joy is weak and grief is strong,
And years and days so long, so long,
Yet this one thing I learn to know
Each day more surely as I go,
That I am glad the good and ill
By changeless law are ordered still,
"Not as I will."

"Not as I will"—the sound grows sweet
Each time my lips the words repeat,
"Not as I will"—the darkness feels
More safe than light when this thought steals
Like whispered voice, to calm and bless
All unrest and all loneliness,
"Not as I will"—because the One
Who loved us first and best has gone
Before us on the road, and still
For us must all His love fulfill—
"Not as I will."

Are You Overhauling Your Kit?

Do you begin to smell the odor of the balsam, to feel the electric tug of a three-pound "small-mouth," to hear the whirr of the quail?

This week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST will help some; it's an Out-of-Doors Number. You'll know it by the cover (drawn by an artist who doesn't use stuffed animals as models); it's the kind of a cover that makes you willing to abandon home cooking for a few weeks.

Among many other features there's The Pollock Pays a fine out-of-doors story by an out-of-doors writer, Stewart Edward White. A story of cattle and cattlemen — and the long trail of graft that leads straight back to Washington, D. C.

"COULD YOU BUT KNOW."

(Written for The Gazette.)

Oh! soldiers of the northern blue—
And soldiers of the southern gray—
We'll scatter blossoms where you lie
Beneath the skies of flowery May.

So still you rest! Above green mounds,
The red rose flings its scarlet spray,
Like cool soft mists, the pale white rose
Blows gently at your feet today.

The red rose whispers of our love,
The white rose breathes, to you, of peace,
Sweet Peace you gave your lives to gain
And love that is beyond surcease.

Sleeping "the dreamless sleep of God"
For forty peaceful years, and more,
Upon the lonely mountain-side
And by the distant ocean's shore.

Old Lookout Mountain faithful guard
Has kept through all the changing years
O'er grass-grown graves, almost forgot,
That once were wet with saddest tears.

In shadows of the Blue Ridge Hills
You fell. And on Antietam's Plain,
By gloomy swamps of Seven Pines
And in the cold gray sobbing rain.

Mid tangled vines and densest woods
You bravely fought at "Wilderness,"
When sombre pines moaned desolate
Their wailing dirges of distress.

You'd deeper rest, the ages through
Nor heeding sun, nor wind, nor rain,
Could you but know the storms of Time
Have washed away War's crimson stain.

We'll scatter blossoms where you lie
Beneath the skies of flowery May,
Oh! soldiers of the Northern Blue—
And soldiers of Confederate Gray.

PET DOG RECEIVES COSTLY HOME

From the Minneapolis Journal.

After remembering friends and relatives and foreign and charitable institutions to the extent of about $25,000, the will of Mrs. Mary A. Pryse, which was filed with the clerk of the court at Helena, Mont., makes provision for the sumptuous care of her pet dog, which was her constant companion.

She directs that her Helena residence be turned over to certain relatives, rent free for two years, provided they properly care for the animal, after which her executors are instructed to make similar arrangements with some reliable childless couple.

The house is to receive the first consideration in the payment of insurance and taxes. Upon the death of the dog the property is to be sold, together with valuable mining interests, and the proceeds divided pro rata among the beneficiaries named.

ZOO WILL BE POPULAR

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT BIG RESORT TODAY.

Exciting Wild West Show Will Be Put on for the First Time.

Colorado Springs people will have an opportunity this afternoon of seeing one of the most realistic and thrilling expositions ever given of the wild west in its early days. The Old Timers Wild West Show company, which will give an exhibition at The Zoo, beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon, has gone to great expense, not only in the acquisition of outlaw horses and unruly steers, but in the preparation of a big arena and commodious grandstand on The Zoo grounds. The exhibition, which contains the star features seen at Cheyenne on Frontier day, in addition to several never before witnessed in this part of the country, lasts about two hours.

The famous bucking bull and several horses never before mounted will be tackled by expert cowboys, secured from Fountain, Cheyenne and the San Luis valley. In the wild horse race, cowboys, each assisted by one helper, will attempt to saddle and mount animals which have never submitted to saddle and bridle and have never been ridden before.

Other features of the show, in addition to steer roping and branding and trick riding, will be a realistic reproduction of a stage coach holdup, followed by the pursuit, capture and lynching of the bandits.

In addition to the wild west show, all of the other new features at The Zoo, in addition to all of the old ones, will be in full blast today and the management expects to do a record-breaking business.

TWO B G DAMAGE SUITS FILED

Effort Being Made to Prevent Eastern Colorado Power Co. From Using Middle Creek Water.

Two suits were filed in the federal court in Denver yesterday morning against the Eastern Colorado Power company of this city, for $150,000 damages. Platt Rogers, George Rogers and Irving W. Stanton of Denver ask $100,000 and Philipp Bauer & Co., of Hamburg, Germany, ask $50,000. A temporary and perpetual injunction is also asked.

The power company is charged with attempting to hold and control the waters of Middle Boulder creek, Colorado, and divert the same into proposed reservoirs which the company is now building. It is claimed such action will draw the water from the mines and mills of the two complainants located farther down the creek, and that the Bauer company holds a prior right to the use of the water.

It is claimed that millions of cubic feet of water will be taken from the creek, and an injunction is asked to prevent more work on the new reservoirs.

The Bauer company says it secured the rights to the water and lands under an act passed in 1871, and that one A. E. Collins did not file maps and claims until some time after the Bauer people located in Boulder county. Collins conveyed his alleged rights to Warren H. McLeod, who in turn sold out to the Electric and Hydraulic company in June, 1907. This concern made surveys to establish the Boulder Power Intake reservoir, the Kassler reservoir and the Baker Meadow reservoir. It is claimed to divert the waters of the creek into these storage plants would deplete the natural flow of the creek and injure the complainants to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Eastern Colorado Power company is controlled by Curtis and Hine and associates, who comprise several Colorado Springs, Denver and eastern capitalists.

WALTMAN PROMOTED—Word received in the city yesterday from W. D. Waltman, formerly assistant city engineer of Colorado Springs, states that he has recently been promoted to superintendent of construction on the Panama canal work. He is now stationed 18 miles from Colon, Porto Bello, Cristobal, and has charge of the crushed stone and sand material used in his section of the big ditch.

for a quorum, remarking that it was evident there was a lack of the required number of senators.

"Anybody can see that," said the senator from Wisconsin, turning to the blind senator.

The vigor and resources of Mr. La Follette were probably never more severely tested than they were tonight. At 11:30 o'clock he was in better voice and was speaking with more vehemence than had characterized his remarks at 3 o'clock. He was also making more attempt at presenting an argument than he had done during the day. Evidently it was not his purpose to devote his remarks to the merits of the currency bill exclusively. He touched upon what he characterized as a threat to defeat the public buildings bill in case the currency bill did not become a law, and discussed the tariff and other public questions.

Spoke for Ten Hours.

After Mr. La Follette had spoken for more than 10 hours he received a note from some watcher he had placed on guard.

"Why," he said, reading it, "I did not know I was speaking to only 26 senators. I will have to make this speech all over."

Senator Stone returned just before midnight, and it was rumored that Senator Jeff Davis had telegraphed Senator La Follette that he was coming, and to hold out until he reached Washington early Saturday.

It was also said that several Democrats had received dispatches from Mr. Bryan urging them to join in the filibuster, but this was not generally credited.

Republican leaders say they will have a quorum from their own membership tomorrow, and that they will not be defeated by a one or two-man filibuster if they have to keep congress in session indefinitely.

Senator Stone arranged to relieve Mr. La Follette. The latter had just raised a point of no quorum and Mr. Aldrich moved that the sergeant-at-arms be instructed to compel the attendance of absentees from the chamber who are in the city. The purpose of Mr. Aldrich's motion was to compel Mr. La Follette to remain in the chamber. Mr. Stone, who was anxious to take the Wisconsin senator's place, moved to suspend the execution of the order, but the motion was defeated by the Republicans and Mr. La Follette proceeded with his speech.

Later Mr. La Follette secured a roll call on the question of a quorum and immediately demanded another roll call. Mr. Aldrich made a point that the second motion was not in order as no business had intervened. Mr. La Follette threatened that if such a precedent were established it would come up to plague the Senate.

Mr. Aldrich's motion was adopted 26 [illegible] to ascertain whether a quorum is present.

Hesitates to Give Up Floor.

The interpretation of the rules preventing Mr. La Follette from again getting the floor if he gave it up made him hesitate to yield it to Mr. Stone. The rumor that Mr. Davis of Arkansas would be here in a few hours was confirmed by a telegram received at midnight.

At 2 o'clock in the morning Mr. La Follette let it be known that he intended to speak until 8 or 9 o'clock.

On October 9, 1893, Senator Allen of Nebraska, in the silver debate, spoke for more than 14 hours continuously. At 2 o'clock, Mr. La Follette had almost equaled this record and the indications are that he will exceed it several hours.

Shortly after 2 o'clock, Mr. Culberson called attention to the absence of a quorum. Not more than a dozen senators were in the chamber when Mr. Aldrich insisted that if Mr. Culberson took the floor he would displace the senator from Wisconsin. Mr. Culberson's purpose was merely to read the congressional record of March 3, 1897, when repeated roll calls were ordered with no business intervening. Mr. La Follette read the entire record, showing the precedent of repeated roll calls.

Quorum Not Obtained.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—At 2:30 a. m. Senator La Follette insisted on a roll call on his point of no quorum. The chair sustained his previous ruling that the call under this rule could not be ordered, and from that decision Mr. La Follette appealed. Mr. Aldrich was prompt to move to lay the appeal on the table.

A number of Democrats refused to vote and Mr. Aldrich insisted that they should be required to do so.

The vote disclosed several short of a quorum and absentees were notified.

During the skirmish for a quorum the Senate leaders under an order previously directing the sergeant-at-arms to bring in the absentees decided to compel the attendance of Mr. Stone, who is slated to relieve Mr. La Follette under the latter's program.

A posse was started for the Raleigh hotel at 3:15 o'clock to arrest him.

The first senator to appear in response to the summons was Mr. Owens of Oklahoma. He bore evidence of having been routed out of bed, being without necktie or collar and his shoes were unlaced.

At 3:30 o'clock the Senate was still waiting for a quorum on the vote to lay Mr. La Follette's appeal on the table.

At 3:40 a. m. a quorum appeared. The appeal was laid on the table and Senator La Follette resumed his remarks, after having secured an hour's rest by his move.

Too Hot for House.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The situation in the Senate on the currency question, combined with the oppressiveness of the heat and the impossibility of disposing of further business, caused the House at 3:30 today to take a recess until 9 o'clock tonight. With the at[illegible] having left the city. A bill was passed providing for making allotments on the Fort Peck Indian reservation, Montana, and a lot of miscellaneous business was transacted, being mostly disagreements to Senate amendments to minor bills. Up to the time of taking the recess the Democrats had forced five roll calls.

But 18 members were in their seats when the House reconvened. After nearly an hour's wait for a quorum to appear, during which time all the resources of the sergeant-at-arms were employed, the House at 7:55 p. m., on motion of Mr. Payne, recessed until 11 a. m. tomorrow.

UNION MEN SENT TO JAIL

The men are John J. Brittain, who is also treasurer of the Chicago Federation of Labor; Charles Grasselli and George H. Lakey.

SHERIFF SHOT BY HOLDUP

Tragedy Near Laramie, Wyo., Has Aroused Vicinity and a Lynching May Follow.

LARAMIE, Wyo., May 29.—Sheriff Alfred H. Bath of this city was killed this afternoon 30 miles west of town by a man named Summers from Walden, Colo. Summers escaped and is still at large with posses pursuing him. Summers had held up and robbed his employer at Walden, taking his pistol and beating him over the head with it. Officers from Walden started after Summers, notifying Sheriff Bath, who left here in an automobile, going to a spot within four miles of where his body was afterwards found. The sheriff left the automobile and had mounted a horse. The Colorado officers later found his dead body.

Summers appropriated Sheriff Bath's horse and fled to the mountains [illegible] Continental by special train and [illegible] Woods landing in automobiles. Sheriff Bath was very popular and leaves a family consisting of wife and six children, some of them mere babies. The people here are greatly excited and if Summers is captured they declare they will lynch him.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The cruiser Albany, the gunboat Wilmington and the torpedo boat Perry were the trophy winners in their respective classes in the annual record target practice of one mile, for 1908, according to the results announced at the navy department today. The Albany had a final merit of 76 with the St. Louis at 69 and the Charleston at 67 as star ships.

ASSEMBLY AT DENVER

PRESBYTERIANS WILL VISIT COLORADO NEXT YEAR.

Bonus of $15,000 Influences the Churchmen in Their Decision—Excitement in Preliminaries.

KANSAS CITY, May 29.—Technical, legal and administrative questions occupied most of the sessions of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America today. The routine of this procedure was relieved somewhat by the preliminary skirmishing of the adherents of Denver and Seattle for next year's assembly. The excitement was all in the preliminaries, however, as the assembly voted almost unanimously for Denver on the first ballot, and subsequently the vote was made unanimous. The assembly will meet in Denver on the third Thursday in May, the time being fixed by the rules of the organization. Denver's offer of a bonus of $15,000, her more favorable location, and the fact that the semicentennial celebration of the Presbyterian church in Colorado will be held in 1909 were powerful arguments in influencing votes.

An overture from the German speaking Presbyterians asking for home rule or independent presbyteries, embodied in the report of the committee on polity, was of surpassing importance in the proceedings today. The Germans carried the matter direct to the general assembly, instead of consulting local synods who, they thought, would not approve the creation of new presbyteries in their territory. The general assembly considered the question of jurisdiction and decided it would be a bad precedent to act independently of the synods affected. While approving the estimate of the new presbyteries the assembly decided that final action would be deferred until the next [illegible] synods could be consulted.

Former Secretary of State John W. Foster, Vice Moderator Dr. James of Brooklyn and Rev. Dr. Stuart Dodge of the board of home missions, were appointed a committee to confer with the authorities at Washington in regard to alleged interference with the work of the American Bible and American Tract societies at Ellis island.

Elections were held at the afternoon session for editors of the Methodist official publications and secretaries of various church boards. The balloting for editors resulted in the re-election of all the present incumbents except in the case of Pittsburg Christian Advocate. Dr. J. J. Wallace of Barnesville, O., succeeded the Rev. Dr. Smith, elected bishop. Secretaries returned as follows:

Dr. Robert Forbes, board of home missions and church extension.

Dr. McB. Mason (colored), Freedmen's Aid society, and Dr. E. M. Randall, Epworth league, all re-elected, and Dr. Joseph Hingeley, secretary of the board of conferences, both new bodies.

STRANGE DRAWBRIDGE.

From the Minneapolis Journal.

With the idea in mind of bridging the Narrows at Lake Minnetonka in a manner more sightly, economical and feasible than the bobtail draw span with a clearance of 60 feet, Eric Swensson, consulting engineer, has designed a lift bridge intended to avoid the complicated mechanism of the ordinary bascule bridge, and the expense attending its adaptation to special conditions, and made a sketch of something new in the lift bridge type.

Mr. Swensson considers the plan he has drawn fundamentally simple. The ordinary span is by vertical arms suspended on two trunnions, which rest on fixed portal-formed towers at the ends of the bridge. The entire bridge may be swung around a horizontal longitudinal axis so that when the bridge is open the movable span occupies a raised inverted position, with enough clearance for the largest vessels.

All the devices will be operated from the room in the upper part of the fixed towers. Automatic gates will close the roadways when the gate bridge is open.

ROMANCE OF A GLASGOW BOY.

From Tit-Bits.

Fortune, we are told, only knocks at a man's door once in a lifetime, and if refused admittance passes by, never to return again. The saying is belied, however, by the career of Mr. George McCulloch, a Glasgow boy, who arrived in Australia just under 60 years ago, with less than £5 in his pocket, and who died the other day a millionaire. This is how Mr. McCulloch threw away his first chance of acquiring a fortune: One night, sitting in a tiny shanty at the foot of the Broken Hill mine, soon after the discovery, he played a game of euchre with a companion, his stake being a fourteenth share of the mine itself. He lost, and the share which thus passed out of his hands was, six years later, worth no less than £1,250,000.

A satisfactory thing about being married is before you are.

MILL NOT SUCCESS?

STRATTON PLANT IS NOT BEING OPERATED.

Rumor Current That Recent Test Proved Big Structure Unsatisfactory—Heavy Tonnage.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 29.—The big Stratton's Independence cyanide mill, which was erected at a cost of $250,000, is not as yet running, and there seems to be a question as to when it will begin active operations. Because it has not started to treat the ore, rumors have begun to arise which are in the main to the point that the big structure has not proven entirely satisfactory. There were upwards of 3,000 tons run through it as a test, several weeks ago, but none since then. However, it is expected that within a short time the big plant, which is capable of handling no less than 6,500 tons monthly, will begin the regular treatment of the dump rock and low-grade ores to be found in the famous old producer. There are some little things to be adjusted about the mill before it can handle the ore regularly and without interruption.

Under the new leasing terms, which were promulgated by General Manager Charles M. Becker a few weeks ago, and which were published in these columns at the time, 15 sets have taken leases on different blocks of the company's territory and practically all of them are getting out some ore. The mine at the present time is only producing between 1,000 and 1,200 tons per month, but this tonnage will likely be increased shortly. The mine is producing a very fair grade of ore, which is being consigned to the United States Reduction and Refining company's plants at Colorado City.

PROPERTY ALL LEASED

SCENE OF LESSEES OPERATING ON BATTLE MOUNTAIN.

Sam McDonald Heaviest and Steadiest Producer—Values Run Close to $30 to the Ton.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 29.—The Battle Mountain Ajax property is now being operated exclusively under the leasing system and there are upwards of a score of lessees working in different blocks and levels of the property. The shaft on the Ajax is 1,000 feet deep, and ore is coming from a number of different places. The mine is reported to be shipping about one car of ore a day and the rock is giving returns ranging from $25 to $30 in gold to the ton.

One of the heaviest and steadiest shippers is Sam McDonald, who is superintendent of the celebrated Strong mine. Mr. McDonald is also operating successfully on one or two other properties in the camp and is reported to be making a handsome sum of money monthly.

The Mohican, which adjoins the Ajax property, is also being worked, and the lessees are shipping out from three to five cars of ore a week and the ore is giving values running from $30 to $40 in gold to the ton. The ore is being mined in the lower workings of the property.

ORE FROM BIG FLAT VEIN

Beacon Hill Development Company's Gold Dollar Property Is Producing $30 Rock.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 29.—The Beacon Hill Development company, operating a lease on the Gold Dollar property, now has two shifts of men at work and the company is reported to be shipping out one car of ore a day, which gives values averaging $30 in gold to the ton. Practically all of the ore mined is coming from the big flat vein which was uncovered at a depth of 635 feet and south of the shaft. It is stated that this vein is from 12 to 15 feet in width and from six to eight feet thick. It has now been opened up for some little distance and there is still ore of a good quality to be found in the breast of the drift.

MORNING STAR HAS GOOD ORE

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, May 29.—Morris Brothers, who are operating on the Morning Star claim of the Acacia company on Bull hill, are mining some nice ore from two different places and each quite near the shaft. Presumably the ore found is all in the same shoot. The ore is being broken down between two and three feet wide and it is said that the values are ranging from four to five ounces, but the tonnage up to date has not been large—about two or three cars per month. These lessees, however, are preparing to make a much heavier tonnage in the near future. Eight or 10 years ago, Wyatt and Sharpe mined some exceptionally good ore from this ground.

STOCK MARKET NARROW

CONFINED TO CLOSING UP OF OUTSTANDING CONTRACTS.

Little Disposition Shown on Part of Speculators to Make New Commitments—Bonds Irregular.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The stock market today was of the usual preholiday character, largely confined, that is, to the closing up of outstanding contracts and showing little disposition to make new commitments. The prevailing speculative temper on the stock exchange was to be inferred from the fact that most of these outstanding commitments were on the short side of the market. The general hardening of prices during the day was due more to that fact than to any new phase in conditions. The brisk rebound in the Gould issues was interpreted to mean that the shock of the Wabash-Pittsburg embarrassment has been practically absorbed by the market in the downward plunge of the last few days in the group. No authoritative announcement was made until after the session of the course to be pursued in the matter of the interest due on Monday on the Wabash-Pittsburg firsts, but it was taken for granted in the financial district that a reorganization, through receivership, was in contemplation.

The feature of the stock market was the aggressive strength of the two Hill railroad stocks. The personality of the brokers buying the stock gave the impression of accumulation by the controlling interest and induced the traders to follow the movement. The advance in the stocks revived once more the rumors of an extra distribution which has appeared previous to each dividend period for some time past. There was nothing more to confirm it officially this time than on previous occasions, but the selling of the Burlington bond issue to reimburse the treasury of that company for capital expenditures out of earnings implies a benefit to the Northern Pacific and Great Northern companies as joint stockholders of the Burlington. There was some special show of strength in American Smelter, which was connected with the varying rumors regarding the dividend prospects of that stock.

The narrow market was almost wholly made up of such special movements due to individual causes. The fact that no gold was taken for export tomorrow was not assumed to indicate the end of the movement, but was associated rather with the question of convenience of steamship transportation. More gold is expected to go to Germany next week. Today's statement of the Bank of France shows rapid growth of bullion holdings, which threatens a depletion in supply. There was an easing tendency also in some departments of the Paris money market.

Although the bank statement was not published until after the close of the local stock market, the undiminished ease of money left no apprehension over the complexion of the showing to be made. The sharp break in the grain markets was held to show that the week's level of prices has been held at an artificial height. The evidence of a readjustment at the close of the May delivery period has some appearance of settlement. There was some very heavy buying of stocks just at the close, especially of United States Steel.

The bank statement showed fully the expected decrease in cash holdings on account of the gold exports and government withdrawals, but the only trace of the supposed heavy loan expansion on account of the large financial transactions put through during the week was the $5,375,000 loan increase of the trust companies. The clearing house institutions showed a decrease of loans, both in the averages and the actual condition.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,354,000. United States 2s, registered, and the 3s have advanced ¼ and the 4s, registered, ½ per cent this week.

CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

Industrial Progress Sure, if Slow. Mercantile Collections Prompt. Dun's Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, May 29.—R. G. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Industrial conditions continue to improve and arrangements have been made for resumption of many plants next week, while retail trade is increased by seasonable weather. There is still a degree of conservatism regarding plans for forward deliveries, but sentiment is decidedly better and progress is in the right direction, although slow. Mercantile collections are more prompt and money rates are slow, despite exports of $40,000,000 in gold and treasury withdrawals of $45,000,000.

Further gains are reported in the hide market, especially for native and branded steers that produce heavy leather.

GRAIN PRICES CHANGE

VIOLENT FLUCTUATIONS MARK DAY'S TRADING.

Market Closes Weak, Wheat, Corn and Oats Being Lower—Provisions Unchanged to Higher.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Violent fluctuations in the price of the May deliveries in wheat, corn and oats marked trading on the local exchange. May wheat and corn each sold over a range of 5c, and May oats over a range of 4½c. With the exception of May wheat, the final quotations of wheat were up 1½c. The market closed weak, corn being off 2 to 2½c and oats 2⅝ lower. July wheat closed ⅝@¾c lower, corn a shade lower and oats were down ⅝. Provisions were unchanged to 5c higher.

The closing out of the May delivery was the feature of trading in the wheat pit, and the uncertainty attending the final efforts of the shorts to extricate themselves from the grasp of the bull leaders had a tendency to restrict trade in the deferred futures. The market opened irregular, the May option being firm and the future deliveries rather weak. Within a short time, however, May decreased 3½c on profit taking sales. Bull leaders then began to support the market, and the price advanced to a point 1½c above the former high mark of the day. This also caused an almost complete recovery in the deferred futures, the prices of which had dropped 2c on the break in May. News of the day was generally in favor of the bears; weather conditions in the southwest being reported as favorable to the new crop tables. The market closed strong for May and easy for other deliveries. May opened unchanged to ½c higher, at $1.09 to $1.09½, sold off to $1.06 and then advanced to $1.11. The close was at $1.10½. July opened ⅛@¼c lower to ⅜@½c higher, at 90⅛c to 90⅝, sold off to 89⅝ and then advanced to 90⅝@¾c. The close was at 90½c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 260,900 bushels. Primary receipts were 373,000 bushels, against 731,100 on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 186 cars, against 192 last week and 490 a year ago.

The corn market opened weak with May delivery unchanged to 1c below the final quotation of yesterday. No support for May seemed apparent from the bull leaders, and the bears quickly knocked an even 5c from the price, quotations dropping ½ to ¾c at a time. Shorts then commenced to cover and the market rallied as quickly as it had declined. The market was extremely nervous for the remainder of the day. The market broke sharply in the last two minutes of trading on renewed selling of May, the price of which dropped more than 2c on the last few trades. The close was weak. May opened unchanged to 1c lower at 81½ to 82½c, declined to 77¾c and then rallied to 82½c. The close was at 80 to 80½. July opened unchanged to ⅛c lower, at 67¼ to ⅜, sold at 67⅝@¾c, declined to 66½ and closed at 67¼@⅜. Local receipts were 337 cars, with 182 contract grade.

Oats for May declined nearly 4c in the first half hour and 4½c within an hour. The market rallied along with wheat and corn, but only about one-half the loss was regained. The market closed weak. May opened ⅛c lower, at 50⅝c, declined to 51½c and closed at 52¾c. July opened ⅛ to ¼c lower at 47¼ to ⅜c, sold off to 46⅝ and closed at 46⅝. Local receipts were 153 cars.

Provisions were firm all day. At the close July pork was up 2½@5c, at $12.70. Lard was 5c higher, at $8.52½. Ribs were unchanged, at $7.37½.

Ehmann's Olive Oil

The Ehmann Olive Oil is absolutely pure. The tannic acid has been filtered out so light and heat will not affect it, and it will not turn rancid. Containing five per cent more nutrition than any imported oil, it is prescribed by physicians as the finest liver and stomach regulator known. Take a tablespoonful of "Ehmann's Olive Oil" at each meal, always between your meat course and dessert. It will help digest the food and nourish the body.
